spatial decisions, mapping out options and clarifying the status of the camps and rights of refugees. At the same time, the constant threat of armed conflicts challenges security of cities and homes. Participants will have to find ways to introduce self-sufficiency and flexibility into housing, supplies, and infrastructure.

II. Age of Global Diseases

Coach: Nadine Godehardt, Researcher, German Institute for International and Security Affairs, Berlin

Several new types of diseases start spreading all over the world. Since the WHO has been dissolved in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic due to the retreat of both the US and China, no global health organization monitors outbreaks of diseases anymore. Global Health lies in the hand of nations and increasingly local communities. This development sparks uncertainty and insecurity in people, who turn to radical and society-dividing movements, challenging democracy. Participants will need to develop a crisis response plan, taking into account societal and spatial measures, the consequences for public space and the meaning of home in this context, while addressing questions of accountability.

It shows management challenges at different levels of government. Participants represent administration officials, regional and local leaders. The goal of each team is to provide their settlements, regions, and the countries with necessary resources, infrastructure, and services. The game is played in a series of rounds representing consecutive years. A balance between short and long-term goals is required, as well as a balance between the goals of local regions and the interests of the entire country. Players are faced with the challenges of negotiations, conflict resolution, strategy implementation, group leadership, and the allocation of resources.

BUCERIUS SUMMER SCHOOL ON GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

Facing new Realities: Global Governance under Strain 14–25 August 2022

PROGRAM

An initiative of the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, Hamburg, in cooperation with the Observer Research Foundation, New Delhi

Moderators: Georg Mascolo, Journalist, Hamburg
Eberhard Sandschneider, Berlin Global Advisors, Berlin

Director: Sascha Suhrke, ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, Hamburg

From 14 to 25 August 2022, the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, in cooperation with the Observer Research Foundation, holds its twenty-first annual Bucerius Summer School on Global Governance (BSS). The original idea to create such an institution harked back to Henry Kissinger’s famous International Summer Seminar at Harvard University. In the 1960s, Kissinger brought together emerging leaders from all over the world for a summer course of debates and lectures. Many of the seminar’s alumni went on to become ministers, renowned academics, prominent journalists – leaders in their respective fields.

Out of this year’s Bucerius Summer School candidates – nominated by government heads, ministers, company CEO’s, university presidents, media leaders and directors of international organizations – we have invited 50 promising business representatives, politicians and academics from different countries all over the world – women and men between 28 and 36 years of age who have already acquired considerable professional experience.

The overall aim of the Bucerius Summer School is to foster leadership qualities in young professionals by involving them in an international dialogue on current political, economic, social and juridical questions. Participants are inspired by – and learn from – distinguished speakers, well-known public figures in politics, business, academia and the NGO sphere.

Georg Mascolo, Journalist, and Eberhard Sandschneider, Partner, Berlin Global Advisors, chair the sessions of the Bucerius Summer School. The lectures and workshops will be held at the Hotel Le Méridien on the banks of the Alster, at the Kampnagel Theater in Hamburg, in different locations in Berlin, and in Lübeck at the European Hansemuseum. Georg Mascolo, Eberhard Sandschneider, and Director Sascha Suhrke with his team are responsible for the program.

The Bucerius Summer School has always been more than just a high-profile conference. It is about building networks and enhancing cross-cultural cooperation of representatives from all walks of public life. To follow up on the annual meetings, we run an active alumni network. With the support of the alumni, the ZEIT-Stiftung and the Observer Research Foundation organize regional follow-up seminars.

Since 1971, the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, one of Germany’s largest private foundations, has been involved in the funding of projects in various fields of research, art and culture, as well as education and training. The ZEIT-Stiftung was established by Gerd Bucerius, the founder and publisher of Germany’s leading quality weekly, DIE ZEIT. Apart from the Bucerius Law School, the Bucerius Kunst Forum in Hamburg, and other projects, the foundation runs a variety of international programs, of which the Bucerius Summer School is the most ambitious.

The Observer Research Foundation seeks to lead and aid policy thinking towards building a strong and prosperous India in a fair and equitable world. ORF helps discover and inform India’s choices. It carries Indian voices and ideas to forums shaping global debates. It provides non-partisan, independent, well-researched analyses and inputs to diverse decision-makers in governments, business communities, academia, and to civil society around the world. Its mandate is to conduct in-depth research, provide inclusive platforms, and invest in tomorrow’s thought leaders today.

The days the participants spend with us will mark the prologue of their long journey towards leadership. The friendships incubated here may well translate into strong partnerships that will serve humanity in the future. We hope that the Bucerius Summer School on Global Governance will give them an opportunity to reflect on the disruptions that are agitating the global community, help build leadership attributes to respond to these, and create empathy for multiple perspectives that abound today.

The ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius and the Observer Research Foundation welcome all speakers and participants. We wish them fruitful discussions, new insights and valuable networking.
